Description:

This position will work with the Assistant Curator and Executive Director/Chief Curator on the re-organization of collection storage spaces within the Museum. Hands on experience in working with collections management, artifact handling, proper storage techniques, and basic preventative conservation will be part of this position. The Sault Ste. Marie Museum has been working on storage reorganization to be able to continue to collect into the future and take on significant community donations including: The Royal Canadian Legion Branch 25 Collection, Bon Soo Collection, Finish Rest Home Society Collection, and the Sault Ste. Marie Police Force Collection, and the local Oddfellows Collection. This position will also work with the Curatorial team to accession, describe, catalogue, and digitize donated objects, archival materials, and photographs/media items into the Museum's Collection. This position will also help transfer curatorial records, editing, inputting, and updating the Museum's Past Perfect Collections Management Database Software.

Other duties include but are not limited to day-to-day operation of the Museum, opening and closing, interacting with visitors, and ensuring all information is presented in a friendly, positive, and accurate manner.

Qualifications:

Eligible candidates must be between 15 and 30 years of age at the start of the employment, be a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or person to whom refugee protection has been conferred under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act for the duration of the employment*; and, have a valid Social Insurance Number at the start of employment and be legally entitled to work in Canada in accordance with relevant provincial or territorial legislation and regulations.

Post-secondary education and or/experience in the following fields is desirable: History, Curatorial Studies, Museum Studies, Archival Studies, and related fields of study.
